And things look good for many other countries during 2011. F.i. Macao, 4 Birds, Philippines, Philippine Crocodile, Singapore, Oriental Small Clawed Otter, Thailand with 4 small cats. And a first in our collection from Australia Post, with 4 stamps. One stamp from Australia, one stamps from Australian Antarctic Territory, one stamp from Christmas Islands and one stamps from Cocos Island in a strip of 4. Further information will be given in our next update.

NEW CATALOGUE PRICES

Since there will be no further WWF issues in 2010, we have updated the following Catalogue Prices per November 30, 2010

Catalogue Prices Official WWF Stamps 1983 – 2010

Stamps mint, First Day Covers, Maximumcards and Mini Sheets.

Catalogue Prices Special WWF Stamps 1969 – 2010

As usual after the various sections.

AUCTION

Please go to Auction WFW Stamps. All the Lots that are still on line, can be purchased at the Buy now price. Which is the Minimum Bid. You should have a look and in case it is of interest to you, place your bid.

SPECIAL ISSUE FROM INDONESIA

As per our update of November 2, 2010. In the meantime we were informed by Indonesia Post, that WWF Indonesia has given the agreement to use the WWF Panda Logo on the stamps. However, since the species of Marine Life have already been included in our Official WWF Collection and since neither WWF International and Groth AG have given the authorization to this issue, we will only take it up as Special issue. We will, however, only offer the Mini Sheet and mint stamps only in 2011. There will be no WWF First Day Covers and Maximumcards for this issue.

OVERPRINT NR. 235 NIUAFO'OU BLUE LORIKEET

Only now we have been informed by a collector, that there is also an overprint of 30s on the stamps of 55. We have found the source to buy this overprint, but will only offer it in our first update in 2011.

NEXT UPDATE

In case we get further important information, we will plan another update on December 14, 2010 or then by all means on January 11, 2011.
